ABOUT JESUS AND MARY COLLEGE

Jesus and Mary College, a constituent college of the University of Delhi, was established by the Religious of Jesus and Mary (RJM) in 1968. This religious congregation was founded by Saint Claudine Thevenet in Lyons (France) in 1818. Six sisters of the Order came to India in 1842. The first Institution started by them was St. Patrick's School in Agra. In 1904 the first women's college, St. Bede's, was established in Shimla, Himachal Pradesh. Mother Del Rosaria, the then Superior General of the Congregation of Religious of Jesus and Mary, visited India in 1955. She was alert to the needs of the youth, particularly the need for higher education institutions for girls of all social strata. It seemed ideal to open a college for girls in Delhi in keeping with this goal. With the constant support of Fr. Loesch, Sr. Felix Pritchard identified a 15- acre plot on the boundary of Diplomatic Enclave in Chanakyapuri. In 1962, official permission was granted to start a new college for women with the right to a grant from the University Grants Commission. On 7th January 1967, Archbishop Joseph Fernandes of the Delhi diocese officiated the blessing of the foundation stone in the presence of Rev. Mother Del Rosaria.

The main building of the College stands on the solid rock of the Aravalli Range. It consists of three buildings: the interconnected Teaching and Administrative block, the Library and the Multipurpose Hall. Set in the grounds is an open air amphitheatre. The College maintains fields for hockey, cricket and football and is equipped with state-of-the-art courts for lawn tennis and basketball.

The College started with 116 students, offering English Hons and a B.A. (Pass) Course. Over the years the College has evolved to a strength of 2,500 students offering 10 Honours Programmes, Bachelor of Arts Restructured Programme with 17 subject combinations, Bachelor of Elementary Education (B. El. Ed.), Bachelor of Vocational Studies (B. Voc.), and Post-Graduation Programmes in English and Hindi.
