Decoding Heteronormativity: An Introduction to Literature and Desire in India

This was an enlightening talk that decoded heteronormativity through the lens of ancient, medieval and contemporary literature. Ms Dua focused on desire and its articulation across several time spans which helped the audience to better contextualise its spectrum. This workshop shattered our heteronormative beliefs and helped us expand our horizons and look at the world with all its plurality. Various texts like Baburnama, Mahabharata, and Kamasutra were brought into focus.

Seminar on Oral History Archive

Talk by Dr Rahul Ranjan, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Oslo Metropolitan University, Norway was organized by Department of History on "The Political Life of Memory: Birsa Munda in Contemporary India."

Telling a Data story using a Visualization Tool (Power BI)

The Department of Economics, Jesus and Mary College, in collaboration with Meghnad Desai Academy of Economics, organised a session on 'Telling a Data Story using a visualisation tool (Power BI)' by Mr. Amlesh Kanekar who is Director of Academics at MDAE with a 30+ years' experience in Information Technology. The session was an insightful one and discussed the importance of storytelling and how using a powerful visualisation tool makes it more effective. Power BI has been recognized as a tool enabling data visualisation and making its analysis easier and convenient.

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting in progress. The main window displays a YouTube video titled "International Republican Institute Survey, May 2015" by John Mearsheimer. The video content includes a data visualization table with the following data:

| Country              | Should only enter one international economic union, which of the following should it be? |
|----------------------|--|
| USA                  | 72%  |
| China                | 77%  |
| India                | 72%  |
| Japan                | 65%  |
| UK                   | 64%  |
| France               | 61%  |
| Germany              | 59%  |
| Canada               | 55%  |
| South Korea          | 53%  |
| Italy                | 52%  |
| Spain                | 51%  |
| Other                | 48%  |
| Don't know/No answer | 13.2%  |

The Zoom interface also shows a list of participants on the left, including Ananya Jijo, Anett Mathew, Ann, Anne, Anu Singh Deswal, Arundhathi C, and Arunima Marwaha. The top of the screen shows the Zoom meeting controls and the name "Megha Jacob".

Remedial Classes are extra coaching classes given to given to slow learners of the college. The main objective of these classes is to bridge the gap between the advanced and slow learners. Some extra teaching hours are provided by the teachers to the students to take their doubts, revise and make the students understand the concepts better.

Students were anxious and had lot of doubts regarding their syllabus, topics after joining back in Semester 2. Every department was asked to allot a teacher in charge for the course. Every teacher met the students once a week and helped them with whatever problems they were facing.

Some suggestions for discussion with students in Remedial Classes were given by the Course Co-ordinator:

1. Difficult topics in the respective syllabus
2. Detailed discussions on course
3. Placements
4. Higher progression
5. Careers opportunities
6. Awareness of college societies and facilities
7. Application of theoretical knowledge into practical world
