Report:

‘Freedom is in our minds, faith is in our hearts. Pride is in our soul and the love for our nation is in our blood’

With the promise to continue fighting for independence from pandemic, hatred, disharmony, divisiveness, the joined hands of the citizens in the battle to free ourselves from all these menaces, the Indian Cultural Society organised the 75th year of Independence day programme to portray freedom, bravery and strength which lies in the citizens of India. Welcoming the Chief Guest Chief Justice Manju Goel (retired) and the Guest of Honour Captain Gursimaran Kaur, the founders' foresight illuminated the history bringing in a moment to rejoice.

There was a grand opening by the members of the Indian Cultural Society with a welcome note, thereafter a key note by the Principal, Prof Sandra Joseph which was then followed by wonderful performances from different societies of the college.

The Ethnic Eight Society contributed a feeling of respect, creating an atmosphere filled with diversity by participating in the grand programme. Exhibiting the beautiful contrast and manifoldness of the north eastern states, the members swayed in beautifully by presenting dance performance. The girls wore their traditional attire demonstrating a song on Independence Day by specifically illuminating the programme as an act of gratitude. The President Ruth J. Lalrimpuii, the Vice President Meggeeny N. Simte and Ms. Bipasha Rosy Lakhra, faculty advisor of the Ethnic Eight Society helped in organising and coordinating the dance performance making it a successful one.

Organising Team:

President Jessica Shroti (Women's Studies Centre)

REPORT:

The Women's Studies Centre in collaboration with the Ethnic Eight Society organised a film screening and discussion of Nicholas Khaskongor's film "Axone" and the screening event was conducted on Monday evening at 6 p.m. with good strength of attendees.

The movie, Axone, deals with various contemporary issues that are faced by ethnic minorities and marginalised sections. The film chronicles the experience of being the 'other' in your own country with levity and authenticity. A recipe for disaster, is a stirring satire which revolves around a day's incident in the lives of a group of friends who are from the North East, as they try to cook and surprise one of their friends on her wedding day, and the various troubles they encounter while doing so. The film gives a vivid representation of the lives of migrants from the North East in the cramped lanes of Munirka on Humayunpur, Delhi where the movie was shot.

Towards the end of the movie screening, there was a discussion on how we felt about the movie. Students present in the meet placed their perspectives. It was an interesting session throughout and everyone was very interactive too.
