Manthan Samiti has been organizing debate competitions at intra and inter-college level for the students of Delhi University on various social and thought-provoking subjects.

'Manthan' samiti is such a kind of training center, where students are taught oratory skills and presenting their point of view in a logical manner. By participating in this, we can overcome our hesitation by speaking in front of others and thus can become proficient in the art of speech and reasoning.

The competitions organized by the Manthan Committee have proved useful for the students, through these competitions, it is possible to develop the reasoning ability and complete personality of the students. Most of the students will have to participate in conversations about the deeper problems of a new life. Therefore, this training, which is given by the debate committee, helps us a lot in future life.

The year began with the election of office bearers & Core team members are elected in every session, after due consideration. The society consists of 54 members. Time to time the society organises Debates on different topics. Large number of students from colleges of Delhi University are participated in the event. Gifts/prizes are distributed to winners.
