

52nd Parents Teachers Students Association (PTSA)

Annual Meet Report (2026)

The 52nd Parents Teachers Students Association (PTSA) Annual Meet of Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi, was held on March 28, 2026, at Thevenet Hall from 10:00 AM onwards. The event witnessed the presence of students, faculty members, parents, and distinguished guests, celebrating academic excellence and strengthening the bond within the college community.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome by the emcees, Aysel Maria and Agamya, who introduced the gathering to the ethos and legacy of Jesus and Mary College. This was followed by the arrival of the Chief Guest, Mr. Jatindar Cheema, Lawyer and Managing Principal, Chambers of Jay Cheema, along with the Principal, Prof. (Sr.) Molly K.A. The ceremony began with the traditional lighting of the lamp, accompanied by a melodious hymn presented by the JMC Choir, creating a serene and auspicious atmosphere.

The welcome was followed by a felicitation of the distinguished guest acknowledging his invaluable contributions to the institution.

Principal Prof. (Sr.) Molly K.A. delivered an inspiring address, extending a warm welcome to all present and congratulating the awardees as well as the Student Council board members for the academic year 2024-25. She reflected on the achievements of the college and emphasized the importance of collaboration between parents, teachers, and students in fostering holistic development and upholding the values of the institution.

The Chief Guest, Mr. Jatindar Cheema, addressed the gathering with an insightful speech, encouraging students to strive for excellence, uphold integrity, and actively contribute to society. His words resonated with the audience and inspired the students to pursue their goals with dedication and purpose.

The Prize Distribution Ceremony followed, celebrating outstanding academic achievements. Awards were presented to students who topped their respective classes, along with recipients of the PTSA Kesar Memorial Award and the Best Christian Students Award. The ceremony recognized the hard work, dedication, and excellence of the students across disciplines.

A significant highlight of the event was the Oath Taking Ceremony for the student body, symbolizing their commitment to leadership, responsibility, and service. The emcees congratulated the students following the oath, marking the beginning of their journey as responsible representatives of the college.

The PTSA Report was presented by Ms. Nimmy Rose Jacob, highlighting the initiatives, activities, and contributions of the association over the past year. Further, Dr. Ruchi Bhalla presented matters pertaining to the PTSA Managing Committee, highlighting its functioning and continued efforts in supporting the association's initiatives. In addition, parents who formed part of the General Body as departmental representatives were recognized for their support and involvement in the functioning of the PTSA.

The event also featured a series of cultural performances that showcased the artistic talents of the students. These included a dance performance by Nrityanjali- The Indian Dance Society, a musical rendition by Tarrannum- The Indian Music Society, a cultural dance presentation by Ethnic Eight- The Northeast Society and a musical performance by Echo- The Western Music Society. Each performance added vibrancy and enthusiasm to the event.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks, presented by Ms. Vrinda Moda, Co-Convenor of PTSA expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest, Principal, faculty members, parents, and students for their presence and contribution to the success of the event. The programme ended with National Anthem led by the JMC choir, bringing the ceremony to a dignified close.

The 52nd PTSA Annual Meet stood as a testament to the values of academic excellence, leadership, and community spirit, further strengthening the relationship between parents, teachers, and students at Jesus and Mary College.
