Invites you to a webinar on

'INDIA AND THE AEROPLANE'

by

Dr. Aashique Iqbal

Date: 25th March (Saturday)

Time: 11:30 am onwards

Venue: Google Meet

Dr. Iqbal teaches history and ethics at Krea University. He has a doctorate from the University of Oxford where he won multiple awards including the Royal Historical Society doctoral fellowship and the Felix scholarship. His book "The Aeroplane and the Making of Modern India" has been published by Oxford University Press. Tracing the Indian state's engagement with aviation, both civil and military, from the Second World War to the nationalization of airlines in 1953, his book argues that aviation played a critical role in state formation in modern South Asia.
