

WOMEN'S STUDIES CENTRE, JMC

CERTIFICATE COURSE MODULE

ON PUBLIC HEALTH AND GLOBAL CARE CHAINS

Session-I: 16th January (Saturday), 10.00 to 11.30 am.
Venue: GoogleMeet

This WSC Certificate Course Module will provide a broad outline of the debates on the 'care economy', feminisation of certain forms of work, and paid and unpaid work. The summary of the debates shall be followed by a discussion on nursing labour, paid domestic workers, dynamics of global care chains and whether they pose a challenge for social reproduction in the countries from where domestic workers, nurses, etc. originally migrate.

Session-I: Conducted by Dr. Maya John, Assistant Professor & Trade Unionist with Gharelu Kamgar Union, 16th January, 10.00 am to 11.30 am

Other sessions in January and early February to be conducted by:

Dr. Panchali Ray, independent researcher and author of Politics of Precarity: Gendered Subjects and the Health Care Industry in Contemporary Kolkata

Professor Praveena Kodoth, Associate Fellow, Centre for Development Studies Thiruvananthapuram.

Dr. Christa Wichterich, Centre for Gender Studies of University of Basel.

Registration Form link:

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1tXKbShL4UtJbTHfkD6O-ggWyXM-MfkI5kisggMRY8pM/edit?usp=sharing> (Registration closes at first 100 responses)

For any queries, contact: Dhvani Jaisingh: 9910073735; Riya Arora: 8054456866