About the speaker:

Shri Anil Swarup, IAS, has worked in the Department of School Education & Literacy, Ministry of Coal and the Ministry of Employment & Labour. He's a former Secretary, Education, HRD, Government of India. In his capacity as Secretary, Ministry of Coal, he was instrumental in carrying out the auction of coal blocks that is likely to result in a revenue flow of around Rs. 3 Lakh Crore to the States. The initiatives taken by him resulted in record production of coal in the country. This production helped in tiding over the crisis created by coal shortages. His past assignments in various Ministries of the Government reflect his in-depth knowledge and experience in visualising, conceptualising, articulating and implementing various schemes. At the very beginning of his administrative career he was awarded the Best officer Award at Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration amongst the officers of 1981 batch. As a strategic thinker and an innovative leader he has won several awards and nominations, the prominent ones being: Nominated as one of the “policy change agent” by The Economics Times during the years 2010, 2012, 2015 & 2016. He was selected as one of the 35 “Action Heroes” in India Today’s 35th Annual Edition.

On 16th June 2020, an engaging webinar on ‘Experiences and Realities: Insights from Civil Servants’ was hosted by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) in association with the Public Policy and Analysis Cell (PPAC) of Jesus and Mary College (JMC). Ms. Tanuja Sachdeva (Convenor, PPAC) gave a brief welcome to the esteemed speaker and the participants. Sr. (Dr.) Rosily T.L., Principal, JMC, commenced her address by invoking God’s blessings. Thereafter, Ms. Megha Jacob (Faculty Advisor, PPAC) introduced the speaker with his stellar credentials.

Shri Anil Swarup highlighted the ethical dilemmas faced by a Civil Servant by narrating anecdotes from his tenure. We were pleasantly interjected by Shri. Jitin Yadav, IAS- our speaker for the following webinar and also a former student of Mr. Swarup, who narrated the dilemmas he faces as a civil servant himself. The question-answer session was moderated by Ms. Shobha Abraham (Member, PPAC) where a gamut of interesting questions were asked and answered. The scholarly session ended with a detailed vote of thanks by Dr. Ameeta Motwani (JMC Webinar Committee Coordinator) recognising the efforts of the many who contributed to the success of the webinar.

About the speaker: Jitin Yadav is a 2016 batch IAS officer of West Bengal Cadre. Born in Gurugram, Haryana, he completed his schooling in there, and thereafter joined Stephen's College, University of Delhi, for his undergraduate studies in Physics in 2006. After completing his undergraduate program, he joined Futures First, a proprietary trading firm as an associate derivatives trader. All through the years working in the corporate sector, he yearned to do more for the underprivileged in society. As an attempt towards this, he utilized his weekends to contribute to an NGO devoted to assisting and mentoring street children, orphans and Divyang children. He decided to step up his efforts to contribute to society by deciding to join the Indian Civil Services. Before joining the IAS in 2016, he served in the Railway Protection Force for 5 months. He is currently serving as the Sub-Divisional Magistrate for Mathabhanga sub-division in Cooch Behar District of West Bengal.
