

Sona V Andrew is an Associate Professor in the Department of Elementary Education. Her area of specialization is Mathematics Education. She engages with courses related to the teaching-learning of mathematics. The Theory courses she teaches is Logico-Mathematics and the co-ordinator of the Practicum Course of School Internship Programme which includes Lesson Planning, Class Room Observation. She Mentors students on Classroom Projects and Reflective Writing.

At the college she is a member of the Student Aid Fund and was the Convenor of the UGC funded National Seminar in November 2019, titled Multiple Childhoods: Voices of the Subaltern. At the University level she served as Co-Convenor of the Admission Committee in 2018 -2019.

---

Academic Attainment: PhD Education, University of Delhi.

---