

Ms. Shirley Joseph

Qualifications: M.A. (Psychology), M.Ed., M. Phil (Education)

Ms. Shirley Joseph teaches two theory papers: Contemporary India and Gender & Schooling to I and IV year students respectively. She is also involved in the I year School Contact Program, II year Observing Children, IV year colloquia Resource Room, Project work and the School Internship Program. She is a member of Film Appreciation Society.

Ms. Shirley Joseph is an Assistant Professor in the department. Her specialisation is in Education. She has published some articles and reviews in several national publications. Her research interests include multiculturalism and gender.

Article:

The Radical Humanist (JAN 2002): The role of Schools in the Communalization of Culture.

Review:

Seminar (DEC. 2008)

Contemporary Education Dialogue (Vol.4:2 Spring 2007)

Contemporary Education Dialogue (Vol. 5:1 Monsoon 2007)