

Ms. Dolly Kapoor

Qualifications: M.Phil. Delhi University

Awards and Recognition: Principal's Award for Administrative Services Rendered to the Institution, Jesus and Mary College, Delhi University, 2014.

Dolly Kapoor is an Associate Professor in the Department of English. Her areas of interest are Gender studies, Classical and 19th Century English literature.

Her other interests include dramatization of literary texts. Her dramatization of The Goblin Market by Christina Rossetti has been filmed by the Institute of Life Long Learning (ILL) Delhi University. Some other productions she has conceptualized and directed include "Macbeth", "Draupadi", "Medea" and "The Glass Shoe", an adaptation of the Cinderella fairy tale.

She supervised the Delhi University Interdisciplinary Innovation Project "Delhi: The City as Text."

She was a member of the IQAC from 2014 to 2016 when the IQAC was constituted during the first cycle of accreditation of the college by NAAC.

She was a member of the Golden Jubilee Core committee constituted to organize the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the college.

She co-edited a Coffee table Book 'Chronicling a Journey: Beginnings, Mentors and Momentous Milestones' in commemoration of JMC's Golden Jubilee. The Book is a compilation of photographs and commentary by her, tracing the journey of the college from its inception to the 50th year of its existence.

She is a member of the Discipline committee of the college, and is presently the Teacher-in-Charge of the Department of English.