

Dr. Anju Luthra

Dr. Anju Luthra has been working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Physical Education of Jesus and Mary College since 1990.

She is a pioneer in the field of Physical Education with a Ph.D. in the subject from Kurukshetra University along with a Post – Graduate Diploma in Sports Management.

Her prowess in the field of sports goes beyond the ambit of Physical Education. Dr. Luthra had the honour of serving as National Course Director for solidarity courses accredited by the International Olympic Organisation. She had also served as the Manager of the Indian Lawn Ball Team in the Commonwealth Games (2010, 2014, & 2018) and was an organising committee member of Asian Championship held in 2017. She also attended the 7th World Conference of Sports Education and Culture in Durham.

She has published several papers related to Physical Education and also has attended numerous other national and international conferences.

Apart from this she is a team official of the All India Football Federation and have organised Basketball Clinic for coaches, teachers and students at Jesus and Mary College in collaboration with N.B.A.(America).

Her area of specialization is yoga and anatomy & physiology