17. Alumni Day and other Alumni related activities/events held during the year

18. Review and Comparison with previous year's Department report.

19. SWOC Analysis

Strengths

- Excellent Esprit de Corps
Cooperation and Teamwork amongst the Faculty members
- Dynamic and Focused Students
- Cordial Faculty-Student Relationship and interactions
- Maximum Campus Placements of the Department of Commerce students
(Total 44 students placed in the academic year 2017-18)
- Maximum internships are undertaken by the Department of Commerce students
- Student Council and Presidential position are held by the Department of Commerce students from past many years

Weaknesses

- Basic infrastructure and Internet facilities not available
Outdated Hardware and Old Generation Software system should be replaced. Laptops need to be updated with latest software (including Anti-virus Software)
- No permanent absorption of adhoc for more than two decades
- Scarcity of tutorial rooms

- Syllabi for BAP Commerce Papers are ill conceived with neither depth nor focus on application especially for AECC

Opportunities

- Teaching Learning Centre
- More Research Projects for Faculty and Students
Incorporating research component enabling students to develop independent critical thinking skills along with oral and written communication skills
- Starting Add on Programmes/Courses
- Synergetic Collaborations

Challenges

- Lack of practical application/ Less market oriented courses
- Shortcomings of CBCS be taken up. Students are not motivated enough and have little knowledge of the credit system
- Large number of students in a class
- Bridging gap between Academia and industry requirement

20. Future Plans

- More Exchange Programs with institutions worldwide to stand apart both at the National and Global level
- Enter into MOUs, Academic Partnerships and Collaborations with institutions
- Placement of students to be fine-tuned to meet the aspirations of the students and expectations of employers especially for BA Prog Commerce Students
