17. Details and activities of Incubation Centre/Entrepreneurial Support Systems formed by the department: NA

18. SWOC Analysis

Strengths:

- Accomplished teaching faculty with diverse areas of interest and specializations.
- The departmental culture of keeping students' interests at the center of all academic and extra-curricular activities.
- Encouraging and enabling students to think sociologically and conscientiously.
- Successful and engaged learning facilitated through effective online teaching-learning.
- Teachers undertook several online faculty development programs and attended workshops to strengthen their skills and knowledge.

- Teachers presented papers and chaired sessions in several online seminars and conferences.

Weaknesses:

- Need to undertake collaborative/individual research projects.
- Need to Publish articles/books more actively.

Opportunities:

- Sociology as a subject has immense capacity to engage with a diverse range of matters – we have been and are continuing to extend the limits of our subject.
- We have new technological tools and resources to make the subject more vibrant, meaningful and effective in communicating its possibilities.
- New emergent fields for career advancement in sociology provide a great new set of opportunities for our students.

Challenges:

- Integrating the new opportunities with the curricular frameworks

19. Future Plans

- Aim to ensure that students have a better roadmap for their career advancement.
- Ensuring that the strengths of the subject are delivered to the students as well as us for better contribution to the society, academics and industry.
- Holding training sessions, inviting resource persons from conventional and non-conventional fields for the expansion of our thoughts and caliber.
- Teachers dedicating more time and energy to acquiring new skills and taking up research projects/publish.

Dr. Amrita
Sastry

Higher educational opportunities in Sociology after graduation in sociology.

Issues of time management for some students because of Online Classes

A first year student lost her parents due to Covid. She was having a lot problems in coping up with the situation.

Few students approached for Civil Services Preparation Guidance

LORs were issued for students applying for post-Graduate courses abroad.

Group discussions as well as one to one discussion sessions were organized according to the type of issues raised by these students.

Counseling for study at home during the Pandemic period.

Over telephonic conversations, the problems of students were heard. All her concerns were suitably addressed, this include finding accommodation for her, help with academic backlogs and giving bereavement support.

Proper Online discussion was done with clear guidance on how to do the preparation.

Dr Mahima Verma

Students struggling with online classes while managing Aged grandparents at home during the pandemic while parents attended to covid crisis as part of their medical professions.

Letter of Recommendation required urgently by a sports and B.A. hons students students of Sociology Hons third year reached out for career counselling

9 students of the paper Rethinking Development from Hindi hons had difficulties understanding the English readings

Time was given to such students separately to help them with course work and assignments

Coordinated with College office for printing recommendation on my behalf on letterhead and sending via email.

Counselled students regarding their career options.

took separate classes with Hindi students to help them with the course on Rethinking Development

Dr. Nivedita Ghosh

Application for higher education programs abroad.

LORs were issued , students were counseled on possibilities of higher education in foreign universities . Counseling sessions helped the students to make decisions with regard to selecting courses for post-graduation.

Two students raised personal medical issues during the pandemic

Telephonic conversations with students undergoing medical problems in their family

A first year student who lost her parents was in distress.

The student who lost her parents due to Covid was given all support to continue her education. Help was provided to find accommodation and with grief management. The teachers of the department including me in consultation with the Principal strived to provide all support for her to continue her education under extreme stress conditions.

Problems related to online exams

Anxieties about evaluation of papers

One to one personal interaction to help with personal issues and exam related queries.

Dr Anuradha
Sharma

Career Counseling

Letters of Recommendation for study overseas.

Advice on Applying abroad for postgraduate studies in the pandemic situation

The problems faced during online Open Book Examinations and possible change in the format of the question paper.

A student who lost her parents to the Covid. was given bereavement support

Students were encouraged to apply for overseas scholarships and courses and LOR were issued.

Students were asked to share their experiences and discuss their problems.

Students were advised not to stress over the problem of timely submission of assignments.

Dr. Jessy K Philip

Help sought with preparing research paper and publishing it

Concerns of loss of physical classes in the early days of the Pandemic

Mental anxieties and problems with online teaching and OBE form

Application and Letters of Recommendation for overseas higher studies.

Review was provided for research papers.

An online survey on online classes was conducted and findings were analyzed in collaboration with students as a group therapy to deal with sudden disorientation caused by cessation of physical classes.

One to one interaction and discussion on OBE LORs were issued.

Ms. Anuragini
Shreeya

Help regarding application for higher education abroad.

Queries regarding entrance exams for post graduate courses in India.

Questions regarding Civil service exams were raised by students as my thesis focused on bureaucracy.

Anxieties with regard to the OBE format of exams.

An open and friendly ambience was created for the wards so that they could discuss all their academic and other issues without reluctance

The students were advised on which universities to apply at and how to prepare for entrance examinations

All doubts related to the OBE and online teaching-learning were suitably addressed.
