DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

INTERNAL AUDIT REPORT

2020-21

Observations and Suggestions:

- Faculty members of the department are Convenors/Staff Advisors and members of many Committees and Societies in the College.
- They have organised events around socially relevant themes, and participated in providing very useful information during the Pandemic. Many of the events also align with the College's Best Practice.
- The department has organised a large variety of impressive academic and other programmes in spite of the constraints related to the Pandemic. They have engaged with topics like emotional well-being and pedagogy in the Pandemic context.
- It has successfully focused on theory and practice integration in all its activities.
- Department faculty have presented papers in international conferences. Many have organised and participated in different workshops.
- Two faculty members were awarded PhD degrees in this academic session.
- The department has a detailed and well chalked out future plans section.
- The department can work towards more publications of research articles.
- It can create a database giving details of student progression.
