DEPARTMENT OF HINDI

INTERNAL AUDIT REPORT

2020-21

Observations:

- In spite of the Pandemic, the Department has organised multiple events and Co curricular activities involving different Colleges across Delhi University.
- It has also taken the initiative to start a Japanese language course.
- It is commendable that students from the department have won many prizes in academic events and completions.
- Many faculty members have contributed chapters to books published articles in Peer reviewed and UGC approved journals.
- One faculty member is also supervising a research student.
- It is good to note that many faculty members are actively involved as Convenors and Staff Advisors of different Committees and Societies in the college.
- Many of them have been involved in university assignments such as paper setting.
- The department can work towards creating placement avenues.
- The members can strive to connect with their alumni and also maintain an alumni database.
- Student progression data should include more students.
- More details could be provided regarding point 17-the entrepreneurial activity of selling masks- that has been mentioned in the report.
- More teachers can participate in National/International Conferences.
