WSC

Women's Study Centre (WSC) aims to provide an intersectional approach while creating awareness among the student members about the inequalities confronting women. The focus in 2018-19 was to provide adequate space for the members to engage in discussion and gain knowledge on various issues such as women and work, gender and sexuality, violence at home, influence of media, laws and rights, health and hygiene. It organized a 6-day Self-Defense Workshop in September 2018 in collaboration with the Delhi Police and provided basic self-defense physical training. On 23rd January 2019, the members attended the talk by Delhi Police on measures being taken to ensure women's safety through various helplines and the Himmat Application. The Student seminar titled "Women's Voices: Agency, Vulnerability and Conformity" was organized on 6th March 2019 and invited papers and short films on a variety of gender-based themes.

AICUF

All India Catholic University Federation stands for the service and liberation of all people, irrespective of caste, sex, language and belief. AICUF affirms solidarity with all those engaged in the struggle for peace, human and democratic rights for a world marked by growing inequalities. AICUF conducted a collection drive on 20th August 2018 for the Kerala Flood Relief in which 91 cartons of items like sanitary napkins, food items, baby and adult diapers, clothes were collected. On 12th September 2018, a talk was organized on the topic "Struggles of Refugee Women and Children in Country of Asylum" delivered by Ms. Selin Susan Mathews, Project Manager, Bosco Refugee Assistance Program. In order to encourage and impart entrepreneurial skills, a food stall 'Full Meal with AICUF' was set up on 12th October 2018. AICUF also held an interactive session titled "Divinity of the Call: Walking the Narrow Path" where the sisters of the college spoke at length on how they strike a balance between studies and charity work.

NSS

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is a society that works towards promoting social equality and a shared sense of compassion and has organized multiple events throughout the year. On the occasion of International Yoga Day, an event was conducted to increase awareness about the benefits of Yoga, where volunteers performed multiple asanas. NSS JMC observed "SwachhtaPakhwada," in which various cleanliness drives and talks were organized. It also included activities like nukkadnatak, poster making competition, rallies and oath taking. One of the biggest events of the NSS JMC, the annual Diwali mela 'Sparsh' was organized with immense enthusiasm on 16th October 2019.

Green Society

The Green Society generates awareness and promotes environmental care at both the individual and community level. A workshop on Plastic pollution: effects and solutions, in collaboration with The Happy Turtle (pioneers in plastic reduction consulting) was organized on 23rd October 2018. The Green Society set up a stall for selling biodegradable sanitary napkins during the Diwali Mela to promote awareness. The society also identified and put up nameplates of 56 different species of trees present in the college campus for developing awareness about diversity in nature.

Peace Society

The Peace Society of JMC actively works throughout the academic session to organize talks, interactive sessions and poster-making competitions to highlight the importance of inner peace in today's extremely hectic lifestyle when students often feel alienated from their own selves. To mark the 125th anniversary of Swami Vivekanand's Chicago speech, the Peace Society participated in the 2 km World Peace March organized by Vivekanand Youth Connect on 9th September 2018. The Peace Society organized an event titled 'Yoga for Peace' on 21st January 2019. During the annual fest of JMC, the Peace society organized a series of competitions related to the inculcation of values for world peace - slam poetry, photography, slogan writing and poster making competition.
