Feast of St. Claudine Thevenet, Foundress of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary (2016 - 17)

"God has chosen you, answer His call!",

AICUF JMC celebrated Founder's day on 1st February, 2017 (Wednesday). The day consisted of two events, Gospel singing competition and AICUF's first band performance. The Judges for the Gospel singing competition included Sr. Marina John, Sr. Renu and a few other sisters from the convent. The event consisted of performances from the students, declaration of results and a surprise performance by one of the faculty members, Dr. Christu Doss. Right after the competition, band performance took place. The day was filled with new discoveries and explorations, with stronger bonds being made within the group and also with God.

AICUF – Gospel Singing Competition (2017-18)

Isaiah 25:1 says "Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you and praise your name, for in perfect faithfulness you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago."

AICUF organised a Gospel Singing Competition on 28th February, 2018 wherein Christian students from different departments took part. The competition was judged by Ms. Vrushali Pathak, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology and Mr. Abhishek Rai, Director at Musicians Stop. The event was attended by a number of students from different societies and departments to cheer and support their teams. The participants enthusiastically participated and made the event successful with memories to cherish in future.

Montage is the prestigious annual youth festival of Jesus and Mary College. MONTAGE'17 was organized on the 17th & 18th of February. Montage brings out the true spirit of the college. It has plethora of competitions and shows ranging from performing arts to academically rigorous events.

The annual cultural fest of Jesus and Mary College began with Sister Rosily T.L. f.j.m. the officiating principal of the college, declaring the fest open saying, "We are proud to invite all the students to Montage this year. We wish the students who have organized the fest all the very best."

Day 1 started with 'Adaah'- an event organized by Nrityanjali, the Indian Dance Society of JMC, which included the Indian Classical Solo competition and the Group Folk Dance competition. The competition was judged by Radhika Kathal and Hemant Pandey. In the Group Dance category, the participants filled the auditorium with tunes and energetic beats from across India. The competition, in which a total of nine teams participated, the first prize was won by Nupur, the folk dance society of Kamala Nehru College. The second and third prizes were won by Nrityakriti (from Maitreyi college) and Nazaakat (from Gargi College), while the singer of the SGTB Khalsa's team received a special mention for his exceptional performance.

Echo, the western music society of Jesus and Mary College, organized 'Madrigal' which included western group singing competition where students of the Western Music Society of Lady Sri Ram College bagged the first position followed by Sound Machine of St. Stephen's College winning the second position and Aria of Hindu college securing the third position. In the event of 'I like to duet x2', Sparsh and Alankrita of LSR bagged the first position.

For the event 'Tap That Treble', which was the western solo singing competition, sparsh from LSR won the first prize and the second prize was bagged by David from St. Stephen's College, while the third position was jointly won by Sumer from Sri Ventateswara College and Zachariah from Ansal University. 'Battle of Bands' was judged by Siby Mathew and Roshan Roy, with a total of seven participating bands, where Tantrik Steve of Hansraj College delivered the award winning performance.

With the competitive events calling it up a day, the enthusiastic crowd gathered to enjoy the concert by Jasleen Royal. The singer enthralled the audience with popular tracks like Kabira and Iktara, along with her popular tracks from the film 'Dear Zindagi'.

Day 2 at Montage kickstarted with the Nukkad Natak, western group dance and choreography competition. The Nukkad Natak or street play competition and the western group dance and choreography events left the audience enthralled. The street play event saw the participation of ten teams from colleges across the University of Delhi. The theatre society of Sri Venkateswara College bagged the first prize while Natuve, of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College, came second. Drama Nomics of the College of Vocational Studies was awarded a consolation prize.

Swaying to the rhythmic moves and portraying the brilliance of astistic bodies, Mudra organized the choreography and Western Dance Competition. Terpsi Chorean from Hans Raj College3 bagged the first prize, with sensation from Kirori Mai College receiving the second prize.

The event of choreography was followed by the Western Dance Competition, presenting motley of performances received by an applauding audience. Zeal, Maitreyi College's dance society, Misba of Shri guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, and Enliven of Gargi College won the first, second and third prizes, respectively. Infusing an element of blissful ecstasy, Tarannum organized the Single and Group Classical Singing Competition. Gargi College's Indian Music Society, Samranjini emerged as the winner, followed by Alahyaa of Daulat Ram College and Hindu College's Alankar. The fest closed with a power packed performance by DJ Kerano, one of the leading DJs and music producers in the country, where the crowd grooved to the beats, mixing up some amazing tunes such as 'Don't Let Me Down' and 'Yellow'!

We would like to express our gratitude to our principal, Sister Rosily, for her continuous support and guidance in organizing MONTAGE'17. The success and accomplishment of MONTAGE'17 was possible because of the meticulous planning and execution by the core committee headed by Dr. Minakshi Mitra, Convener of Montage along with Dr. Mani A. Nandi, Dr. Rekha Dayal, Dr. Usha Chugh, Ms Dolly Kapoor, Dr. Alka Sehgal, Ms Sona Andrew, Dr. Amita Paliwal and Dr. Richa Raj. We would like to thank the teaching and non-teaching staff for their efforts, and student core team for their dedication and determination for making MONTAGE 17 a meaningful festival.

Ethnic Eight North East Society Festival (2016-2017)

Ethnic Eight, the North-East Society of Jesus and Mary College achieved many milestones in the academic year of 2016-2017, with the guidance, encouragement and support of the new society's faculty advisers - Dr. Mani A. Nandhi, Convener, Dr. (Sr.) Molly and Mrs. Shruti Sethi, Co-Faculty advisers.

The biggest event for Ethnic Eight society was its First North-East India Inter-College Festival held on the 2nd of March, 2017. We were very privileged to have Dr. Jitendra Singh, Minister, Ministry of Development of North East Region, MoS in Prime Minister's Office, Department of Personnel and Training, and Department of Space and Atomic Energy, Government of India as our Chief Guest. Dr. Jitendra Singh inaugurated the First major festival showcasing the theme 'Diversity within Diversity' of north eastern culture. Dr. Jitendra Singh congratulated the organizers for the festival and highlighted that other parts of India have a lot to learn from the rich cultural diversity of North Eastern region. The Minister offered to provide any help in the form of resources to develop North East relevant facilities in the college from his ministry. He gave away certificates to members for their participation in the workshops organized by the society as well as to non-north east students for their contribution to the success of this festival.

After the inaugural event, there was a grand cultural show during which the North-East cells of different colleges including Daulat Ram College, Aryabhata College, Lady Shri Ram College, Maitreyi College, Indraprastha College, Mata Sundari College etc. as well as members of our own society showcased a colourful mix of North-Eastern dance and music show. The festival also had a number of stalls selling popular north-east cuisine, arts and crafts of different north-east states, handmade products stalls from students, a photo booth as well as a games stall. The festival was ably supported by two of our college societies – Mercatus, the marketing society and WDC in promoting the event. We, the society members were elated to see the presence of a large audience of students and faculty from JMC and other colleges as well as non teaching staff. The MPH remained packed till the end of the program. The fest this year was the biggest yet in the history of the society. It was fun-filled and everyone had a great time.

March'2018: Nukkad Naatak Presentation by Sukhmanch Theatre, Delhi

A Nukkad naatak by Sukhmanch Theatre was presented on the theme of various issues related to environmental pollution. The naatak was directed by Ms. Shilpi Marwaha and was held on 11th April 2018 in the Amphitheatre of the college. The play was conceptualized by the various artists of the group and they depicted a brilliant personification the various elements and the deteriorated condition of nature due to environmental degradation. The play had a positive impact on the students and enhanced their capacity to understand the curriculum. Overall, the event was impactful and aided greater understanding of the subject matter.

The event was organized by Dr. Anupama Srivastava (Dept. of Hindi)
