FACULTY COLLOQUIUM TALK ON "THE CULTURAL PHENOMENA OF POST MODERNISM AND WOMEN'S CONFLICTED SPACES": INAUGURAL TALK BY DR TAISHA ABRAHAM

The Research Committee of Jesus and Mary College
Faculty Colloquium Series

Inaugural Talk

by

Taisha Abraham

The Cultural Phenomena of Postmodernism and Women's Conflictual Spaces

ABSTRACT

Our current society has replaced all reality and meaning with symbols and signs and human experience is a simulation of reality. We live in a world dominated by images that pretend to depict a reality but that depict only themselves. The Marxists by focusing on the economic base are being distracted from the cultural realm by the capitalists. In this sense Marxists are idealists and culture critics are materialists because things are happening at the level of signs.

Date: 11th April 2018

Venue: 408

Time: 12.30 p.m.

About the Speaker

Dr. Taisha Abraham is an Associate Professor in the department of English, Jesus & Mary College. She received her PhD degree from the State University of New York at Stony Brook, USA. She has published books and articles extensively and held important editorial positions in both national and international journals. Abraham was the general editor of Shakti Series that focused on women and global issues. Her areas of specialisation are Education, Gender, Literary and Postcolonial Theories. Her publications include Female Empowerment: Impact of Literacy in Jaipur District of Rajasthan (co-authored, 1995), Feminist Theory and Modern Drama (ed. 1995), Women and the Politics of Violence (2002), Postcolonial Theories: Introducing issues and Debates (2007), Education for Sustainable Development (2010), Women's Writings Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries: Short Stories (2012) and Crossing Boundaries, Erasing Margins: Interdisciplinary, Collaborative, Innovation Projects (ed.) (2013). She is the founder member and editor of the e-journal, The JMC Review: An Interdisciplinary Social Science Journal of Criticism, Practice and Theory (2018-).

Abraham is the recipient of the Theo Mathias award for distinguished and innovative teaching and was nominated for the President's award for Teaching in Stony Brook, New York, 1990. She was a visiting professor at the National University of Cyprus, Cyprus (2002-2004). She has also been a Literary Review Consultant for the Commonwealth Writers Prize Eurasia Region (1999-2000).

Dear colleagues,
Please find attached the details of the Inaugural Talk by Dr Taisha Abraham on 11th April (Wednesday) at 12:30 in Room 408, which is part of the Faculty Colloquium Series hosted by the college's research committee. Dr Abraham will be speaking on 'The Cultural Phenomena of Postmodernism and Women's Conflictual Spaces'.
Broadly speaking, this colloquium series is a platform for JMC colleagues to share their academic pursuits within the interdisciplinary paradigm. As an official beginning to the series, the inaugural talk has been organized. We request you to join the session and to be part of this endeavor to further research interests within the faculty.
We also request TICs to inform their retired faculty members of this inaugural talk and the faculty colloquium series.
Regards,
Dr Maya John
