University of Delhi

GOLDEN JUBILEE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

EMPOWERING WOMEN THROUGH TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATION

CHIEF GUEST : Prof. Yogesh K. Tyagi , Vice - Chancellor , University of Delhi

OCTOBER 3 - 4 , 2018

JESUS AND MARY COLLEGE GOLDEN JUBILEE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE (3rd – 4th October, 2018)

Jesus and Mary College, University of Delhi culminated its yearlong Golden Jubilee celebrations with a two-day International Conference on October 3 and 4, 2018. The Theme of the Conference was “Empowering Women through Transformative Education”. It created a dialogue on the issues of gender empowerment, its meanings, importance and role of various agencies in general and higher education in particular.

Speaking at the Inaugural, the Chief Guest Prof. Yogesh K. Tyagi, Vice Chancellor of University of Delhi highlighted the need for education to be truly transformational in the sense of enlightening students and bringing behavioural and attitudinal changes in order for it to be empowering.

Prof. (Retd.) Karuna Chanana in her Keynote speech brought out the state of art in research on Gender and Education in India which included the heartening statistics that gender gap in higher education enrolment in India is on the decline in recent years.

The conference had 12 eminent speakers at 3 Panel sessions which included Padma Shri Meenakshi Gopinath (ex Principal, LSR); Prof. Shyam Menon (CIE Delhi and Former Vice Chancellor Ambedkar University); Prof. Ravinder Kaur (IIT Delhi); Prof. and Ambassador (Retd.) Veena Sikri (Convenor, South Asia Women's Network); Prof. Anita Ghai (AUD); Dr. Mary E. John (CWDS Delhi); Dr. Nilima Chitgopekar (Associate professor JMC); Ms. Kanta Singh (UNDP India); Foreign experts: Finnish Professsor Marja-Liisa Tenhunen (SHU MBA Shanghai University), British Education Expert Ms. Beckey Smith (Asst. The panel discussion sessions presented different facets of the definition of women empowerment such as sex selection and violence; and agreed on the need to redefine women empowerment as autonomy and agency of the women to make choices and decisions. Economic growth along with education emerged as the key facilitators of women empowerment. The sessions were attended by hundreds of students and faculty members.

The Conference received an overwhelming response from researchers from all parts of India (from University of Kashmir to Calicut University in Kerala). Around 40 delegates, whose papers were accepted by the reviewers, presented their papers in 4 Thematic Technical Sessions.

On the side-lines of the Conference, some students' activities were organised too. These included Poster Making Competition and On-the-Spot Acting Competition.

The power of social media is the ability to connect and share information with all persons having access to the internet. Today, because of Information Technology the world has turned into a global village. Marketing through social media is one of the most effective ways of introducing the company and its products in the market. Several companies have achieved amazing results through e-mail marketing.

Though social media offers unlimited opportunities, there are huge challenges attached with it. To discuss these opportunities and challenges the Department of Commerce, Jesus & Mary College was invited by Sr. (Dr.) Rosily T.L. r.j.m, the Principal of Jesus and Mary college to organize a Two-day International Conference on the theme Social Media Marketing – Opportunities & Challenges on 28th and 29th March, 2019 (ICSMM-19).

With an array of interactive and informative sessions, the conference aimed to provide all its delegates a holistic experience by inculcating in them knowledge and awareness of this digital world that surrounds them, while leaving them with some room for thought.

The conference was honored by the presence of eminent guests both National and International. They included Her Excellency Joanna Kempfers, High Commissioner, New Zealand High Commission, Justice Mukul Mudgal, Chairperson, Governance Committee and Review Committee FIFA and by the presence of Hon'ble Smt. Sheila Dikshit, Former Chief Minister of Delhi and President of the Delhi Pradesh Congress Committee.

Her Excellency Joanna Kempfers along with Justice Mukul Mudgal, Sr. (Dr.) Rosily T.L. r.j.m and the convenors released The Abstract Book put together by the Academic Committee, ICSMM-2019. On this occasion three books were released by Hon'ble Smt. Sheila Dikshit, which included "International Business", by Dr. Vibha Mathur & Ms. Priyanka Marwah, "Insurance & Risk Management- Fundamentals & Applications", by Dr. Nishwan Bhatia & Ms. Charu Sarin, and "Women's Working World- A Mirror to their World" by Ms. Amita Sahaya,

A special address by Dr. Bertrand de Hartingh, Counsellor for Education, Science and Culture at the Embassy of France in India was an important discourse on the Marketing of Indian Culture through Social Media.

The conference was a mix of debate and discussions organized by the faculty and students of the department consisting of plenary and technical sessions, special invited panels, workshops and a master class conducted by experts in the field.

Two forums of which CEO's of Corporates, Entrepreneurs and Founders of Start-Ups were the panelists was organized by our students a) Media Connect: Debates and Dialogues and b) 'Techocial', a Round Table Conference on the impact of Social Media Marketing.

A special invited Health Panel on the theme- 'The New Age Communication Tool in Generating Community Awareness on Health Issues', focused on the issue of the pervasiveness of fake news related to health on social media platforms and focused on the question 'Is social media really social'. This was discussed by eminent medical doctors and psychiatrists from India and Italy. This invited Panel was chaired by Dr. Alok Mathur from the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India

A Master Class on 'Outcomes & Effects of Social Activism: Whose Voices are Heard and How?' was conducted by international experts from Sweden. The student participants nearly 80 in number who had pre- registered for the event, attempted to explore their past and present experiences with social media and discussed the way forward.

Students organized a workshop on 'Cyber Security' which shed light on topics such as ATM tampering and misinformation. Information was given about Cyber Crime Prevention against Women and Children how it works and how it can be used by us to report cybercrimes. This workshop had more than 60 enthusiastic participants.

With an aim to increase brand awareness and to draw attention to company values, a Social Media Campaign Designing Competition, "Viral in Nature" was organized by the students. Besides, A Career Fair, 'Erudite' was also organized by the students of the Management Interaction Cell of JMC. More than 25 companies and institutions participated in this first ever career fair in JMC.

An Inter- college Art show and competition was one of the highlights of ICSMM-19. This was in collaboration with the Fine Arts Society of the College. The show displayed a diverse collection of 2D and 3D art pieces. The displayed art pieces explored topics like Role of social media platforms and the Future of social media marketing. The chief guest at this event was the eminent artist Shobha Broota. The show was curated by Dr. Nishwan Bhatia, who was also the co- head of the Academic team.

The Plenary Sessions based on the theme of the Conference including: Social Media: A New Age Communication Tool, Social Media as a Tool for Empowerment, Social Media: Intrusion and Privacy and the last Plenary the Economics of Social Media saw eminent researchers and practitioners having an interactive discussion both among themselves and with the audience.
